The finale of the 2011 Foxwoods Poker Classic $600 No-Limit Championship was a battle to the end, and in the end, Fred Eriquezzo of Danbury, CT would eliminate his last four contenders to capture the Commemorative Leather Jacket, Championship Trophy and Top Prize of $32,204.

A total of 261 players started on Friday and played down to forty six just before 1am. They returned at noon on Saturday to compete for the $134,180 prize pool. Play continued for six hours before the final table was finally determined. A half hour later, Steven Striar of Plymouth, MA would move all-in with AdQd and his last 190k. He was called by Thomas Renault who had pocket Jacks. The 10s3h2s2cJc on the board resigned Steve to 10th place with a $2,549 payday. Next to leave was Tom Cope, who would also go heads-up with Thomas. Tom raised to 65k and was re-raised by Thomas to 165k. Tom then moved all-in and was quickly called by Thomas turning over pocket Aces to Tom's AcKd. The board (Ad9d4h8s6s) gave Thomas the set and left Tom finishing 9th with $3,500 to take back home to Westport, CT. Carol Neal of Provincetown, MA, would move all-in with Kh10h. She was called by Fred who showed KcQd. The 8s5s4s7h8h board completely missed both players bringing Carol's run to an end with $4,159 for 8th place. Finishing in 7th and earning $5,099 was James Kirby from Blauvelt, NY. James, who lost most of his chips on the previous hand, called Shawn Radley's all-in raise to 470k, with his last 25k. They were both called by Thomas. James turned over AsQs, to AhKd for Shawn and pocket Jacks for Thomas. The 10d4d3c9c on the flop and turn looked good for Thomas, but the Ad on the river gave the pot to Shawn and brought Jim's tournament life to an end. Moving all-in with his last 550k, was David Carleton with AsKh. He was called by Thomas who once again would face two overs with pocket Jacks. For the second time, the pocket Jacks would survive as the 4h3s2s4c10d board would result in a 6th place finish and $6,105 for David, the Saugus, MA resident. Another twenty minutes would pass before Tim McInerney of Seekonk, MA would raise to 130k. He was raised all-in by Fred. Tim called with Ah10h, and was disappointed to see Fred's pocket Kings. The board (QhQs2d7s5s) brought his tournament run to an end with a 5th place finish and $7,514 to show for his efforts. Finishing 4th and earning $9,796 was Thomas Renault of Arlington, MA. Thomas and Fred watched the 5s4s2c come out on the flop. Fred bet 150k and was raised all-in by Thomas. Fred called turning over pocket Queens to pocket 8s for Thomas. The Jc2h completed the board and the day for Thomas. The next hand had Shawn Radley move all-in with Kd10c only to be called by Fred who showed Ad10d. They each caught 10s over 9s, but Fred's Ace relegated Shawn to a hard fought 3rd place finish with $12,210 to take back home to Dorchester, MA.

The final two, Zeljko Mitrovic of Lynn, MA, and Fred Eriquezzo only needed one hand to end the tournament. Both players were all-in after Zeljko caught pocket Queens and Fred picked up pocket Aces. The 7c6c2d9h8s on the board left Zeljko with $18,919 for 2nd place, while Fred would claim the Jacket, Trophy, and $32,204 Top Prize for the 2011 Foxwoods Poker Classic $600 No-Limit Hold'em Champion.
